

June 1, 2017
Japan Canada Oil Sands Limited

Beware False Recruiting Offers

JACOS is aware that some job seekers have received false employment offers from an individual or organization posing as JACOS. Individuals or organizations sending these false employment offers may request personal information or funds to further the recruitment process.

Please be aware that JACOS will never request money from job seekers, nor request personal information beyond what is required for a resume. All individuals who are successful in gaining an offer of employment from JACOS, whether directly or indirectly are always required to go through a formal recruitment process including an interview with a member of JACOS' recruitment team.

Tip:

One quick way to know your potential offer is fraudulent is to check the email address. Legitimate emails from JACOS end in @jacos.com. If you are concerned you've been contacted by an individual or organization posing as JACOS, please contact our Head Office at 403-264-9046.