2019-2020 Home-School Compact for Learning

As a Title I school, we will support students and their families by:

- Holding students to high standards congruent with our Code of Conduct by modeling and teaching the Model of Care curriculum.
- Providing excellent customer service regarding academic success and performance to our families (24-48 hr. response time).
- Provide two-way communication between home and school by communicating through on and off campus parent conferences, email, weekly updates, and phone communication.
- Providing workshops on academic standards and social growth.
- Providing translators upon request and reaching out to parents Sunday-Friday during academic hours (8am-4pm) and student life hours (3pm-9:30pm)
- Encouraging families and the community to support our students through volunteering and participating in on and off campus activities and

As a parent/caregiver, we will support our child(ren) by:

- Advocating for my child(ren)’s educational rights through partnering with SEED for the holistic development of my child
- Providing materials needed for my child(ren) to reside on campus
- Partnering with SEED through attending Title I meetings & events, school events, back-to-school night, parent-teacher conferences, and parent workshops.
- Completing volunteer opportunities on campus
- Monitoring my child’s academic & social progress through kickboard & PowerSchool.
- Ensuring that I effectively communicate with SEED staff and keep all contact information up-to-date

As a student, I will:

- Uphold The SEED School of Maryland Code of Conduct displaying the Model of Care skill of the week and the eight core values
- Take my education seriously by completing all assignments, attending after school supports, asking for help, and bringing all materials I need
- Display a positive attitude as a citizen in the SEED community by showing respect for all students, faculty, staff, and campus visitors
- Fulfill school and individual service learning hours
- Communicate concerns with my family, teachers, counselors, support staff

For more information and/or questions please contact Mr. Harris at 410-843-9477 ext. 297