Since 2013, the A. James & Alice B. Clark Foundation has invested over $5 million in DC Public Schools (DCPS) to support infrastructure, courses, and programs to help students graduate with an Associate’s degree debt-free. In 2017, the first students enrolled in four-year college after graduating from Bard High School Early College. Today, approximately 500 students from 9th to 12th grade.

In 2021, Bard will be fully enrolled with high school with over one year of college credit. Furthermore, 85% of Bard High School Early College students enroll in four-year colleges after graduation. By 2021, Bard DC will be fully enrolled with students at their temporary location in Ward 7 DCPS swing site space. As the first selective early college program East of the River, Bard DC provides students with the opportunity to earn a high school diploma, 60 transferable college credits, and an associate degree from Bard College, free of charge.

The Ed Fund celebrates at the Anthem on the Wharf, elevates the profession to a new level. In 2019, Ed Fund celebrated at the Anthem on the Wharf, every year’s Top Teacher award and recognize the best educators, shines a spotlight on DCPS talent and partners unlock meaningful opportunities for kids and put innovation within reach. We are thankful for the steadfast commitment of our donors who stand with us and DC Public Education Fund.

Anacostia’s redesign will involve a new Bard College early college pathway, that partners with DCPS to provide a supportive high school experience for students seeking to pursue college.
