5 Events to Check Out This Weekend: May 20 to 22

ERIN NUDI / MAY 18, 2016 / LEAVE A COMMENT

Cinco de Mayo has passed, and we're not quite at Memorial Day Weekend yet. But no worries, because there's still plenty going on this weekend, and we've got your fun events right here.

1. Rock 'n Derby at The Schaghticoke Fairgrounds

Friday, May 20 to Sunday, May 22

Nonstop music on three stages, barns full of beer, wrestling, live performances, and more are going down at the Rock n' Derby. Over 20 food vendors will be in attendance, including some staple Schaghticoke Fair eateries. Don't miss out on the Demolition Derby happening Saturday and Sunday, with over $10,000 in prize packages paid to the winners.

2. Friends Used Book Sale

Friday, May 20 to Sunday, May 22

Friends of the Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library are holding a three day long Used Book Sale in the Program and Friends' Room on the 2nd floor of the library. Hard cover books are $1.00; children's books, trade books, and paperbacks are $0.50; CD sets, DVD sets, and audio books are $2.00; with some special books priced slightly higher.

Enjoy a noncompetitive walk with your dog to raise funds for the American Cancer Society. Walk, shop, eat, and maybe even add a furry friend to your family. Live music, games, contests, and demos will also be going on.

4. Touch-a-Truck Event

Saturday, May 21

This fundraiser for the Veterans Count NY gives children, their parents, and other guests a chance to get up close and personal with a variety of trucks and emergency vehicles. Vehicles on display will include a variety of tractor trailers, police cruisers, ambulances, and construction vehicles. Door prizes and raffles will be going on thanks to the participation of local companies.

5. Northeast String Orchestra Youth Orchestra Concert

Sunday, May 22

Clifton Park's own Northeast String Orchestra youth orchestras are putting on their spring concert! Held at the Schenectady County Community College School of Music, the free concert includes players from the Northeast String Orchestra, Prelude Strings, and the Advanced Ensemble.
