

News and Updates

Generous Donation by Ames Universal Future Auction Item

Ames Universal and ActiveMusic have generously donated an autographed Squire Stratocaster electric guitar to help raise funds towards Starlight's rehabilitation. The item is signed by Blues/Americana artists such as Keb Mo', Clarence "Frogman" Henry, Budy Guy to name a few.

Ames Universal is an internationally acclaimed media production and consulting firm, specializing in live event production, internet broadcasting, animation, post-production, and distribution. Ames Universal is headed by Alan and Brian Ames.

ActiveMusic a small group of dedicated activists with ties to the music community saw music as a means to draw people to the causes they were working with. Believing that through the experience of live music hearts can be touched and inspire individuals to take personal responsibility and positive action on issues that impact their lives, founder Susann McMahon and co-founder Richard Wegman united this group under the name of ActiveMusic.

Thank you, Ames Universal and ActiveMusic for your support!

Balboa Park Community Meeting

hosted by councilmember Chris Ward

Chris Ward councilmember for district 3, hosted a second Balboa Park Community Meeting at the San Diego Museum of Art Auditorium on August 1, 2017.

Balboa Park's community discussed various buildings across the park including our beloved Starlight Bowl which are in great need of infrastructure upgrades.

Learn more about a study that recommends infrastructure updates to Balboa Park

Learning from our past in order to improve our future

Survey finds that millennials value older buildings with authenticity and character where they live, work and play

Our organization encourages the younger generation to get involved in our campaign towards the rehabilitation and preservation of Starlight Bowl.

A new study suggests that "millennials tend to value a mix of old and new buildings where they live, dine, shop and travel."

Learn more about this New Study Reveals Millennials' Desire to Connect with Historic Places

Give A Gift Today

Your donation goes directly toward revitalizing and restoring the Starlight Bowl. Thank you for helping us bring back a bit of San Diego's past into the future.

Tax ID #81-3430648

Donate Today
