A huge thank you to all parents who attended the meet the teacher meetings, the stay and play session or the phonics workshop. We are delighted with the high attendance at these meetings and the fantastic support you have shown for your children's learning. Thank you also for the very positive feedback we have received.

We have another phonics workshop for Reception parents next Wednesday at 3.05 pm. If you have been unable to make one of the other meetings please feel free to come along even if your child is no longer in YR. It will still be relevant.
