

Ken Nachman

Ken's career started in his family business which manufactured men's suits, sports coats, and dress slacks in Richmond. The business transitioned into one of the largest retail menswear operations in the Southeast, Jefferson Clothing. Ken along with his brother, John and father, Larry, a longtime Rotarian operated Jefferson Clothing until 2003. Afterwards Ken joined Long and Foster Realtors and then moved to Better Homes and Gardens Base Camp where he has been for the last 9 years. Ken has been very successful in Real Estate selling residential, commercial, and leasing properties.

Ken is a native of Richmond, and is a cancer survivor and widower. He has 2 adult sons and 3 grandsons. Ken has been on the boards of the Better Business Bureau, Richmond Jaycees, Retail Merchants Association, Stony Point School, Richmond Triumph Register, and Reeds Landing Community Association. Ken is passionate in the old car hobby and participates in many Concours d'Elegance and other club events.

Ken been an active Rotarian for over 30 years. He has been on the Rotary Board of Directors two times and recently has managed the Meals on Wheels Project and the Blood Drive. Ken has 25 years perfect attendance.