The purpose of this Chapter is to regulate studies, surveys, research and service delivery projects on the Colville Reservation in order to preserve and protect the rights of the Colville Indian Tribes and their tribal members, their privacy and integrity, and their interests in the results and products of the such studies, surveys, research and service delivery projects.

6-6-3 Permit Required

Any individual, corporation, agency or institution, whether public or private wishing to undertake a study, survey or research project for any purpose on the Colville Indian Reservation, not specifically requested or contracted for by the Colville Confederated Tribes, must first obtain a permit approved by the Business Council, or its designate, authorizing the conduct of such study, survey or research project on the Colville Indian Reservation pursuant to provisions of this Chapter.

6-6-4 Written Agreement Required for Issuance of Permit

6-6-7 Refusal to Issue Permit

The Colville Tribes retain the right to refuse to issue a permit if it is deemed that there is insufficient time for appropriate tribal review, evaluation, supervision or participation in the project.

6-6-8 Fee May Be Required

The Colville Confederated Tribes reserve the right to charge a fee for issuance of a permit in the event that the subject study, survey or research project is being conducted for profit or if the results of the study, survey or research project, or publication thereof, are intended to, or are likely to produce financial benefit to the individual, corporation, agency or institution conducting the study, survey or research project.

6-6-9 Permit Does Not Imply Endorsement

Issuance of a permit to conduct any study, survey or research project pursuant to provisions of this Chapter does not imply endorsement of the results or final product of the study or any publication derived from or based upon the results or final product of the study, survey or research project.

6-6-10 Reports to be Provided

At least one copy of all interim and/or progress reports, and of the final report resulting from the study, survey or research project, shall be furnished to the office of the Tribal Chairman without charge.
