Opening Reception: Friday, May 4, 2018 7-9pm

The Cluster Gallery is pleased to announce HOW BIG IS BIG, a group show curated by Joel Carreiro. Participating artists; Noah Stitt, Judy Koo, Hannah Schutzengel, Charles Yuen, Joanne Howard, Suzanna Frosch and Polly King. The exhibition will be on view from May 4 through May 26, 2018 with a public opening reception on May 5, 7-9pm.

The exhibition presents works that are physically small but otherwise scale-less. From formal experimentation and materials- innovation, to category- blurring, innovative hybridization and conceptual nimbleness, these works are frisky and ambitious.

Compact cars can travel as far into desired districts and distant places as bulkier vehicles, with less fuel expenditure and waste.

Works in this exhibition negotiate complicated relations, embody elegant conjectures, summon to consciousness buried knowledge, emblemize the unlikely -but -often -true, propose the possibility of grace and engineer non-verbal communication.

Small things accurately represent us, as we are small things ourselves, engaged in large tasks.

Brooklyn Art Cluster / The Cluster Gallery open on Wednesday to Thursday, noon to 6pm by appoint only and Friday to Saturday, from Noon to 6pm.
