Do you find leading a social impact organization can be a tough balance between running the business and advocating for your cause?

As a non-profit, your level of funding is an important part of your potential impact that often restricts what you can do.

We know what it's like. We've led organizations like yours.

That's why we provide a wide range of creative support solutions at an affordable rate.

Think of yourself as the Captain and us as your ship's crew. You'll be setting your organization up for productivity, innovation and sustainability with your own crew of pros who work directly with you and your leadership teams and boards. We get your ship on course and ensure you continue sailing forward.

We develop a customized plan based on your needs. Our Services include (but are not limited to):

VOLUNTEERS + TEAM LEADERSHIP

Understanding personalities, preferences, skills, and challenges will allow your leaders and teams to do more, together. We provide:

- interactive volunteer and leadership development programs,
- human resource management and volunteer coordination
- individual or team coaching
- community and team-building programs.

ADMIN, COMMUNICATIONS + DESIGN

We know what you do is important and we know you'll want to tell the world about it! We offer creative communication services that get you up and running and get your message out there, like:

- virtual admin assistance
- digital marketing and ongoing management
- brand and web design

WE COLLABORATE TO OFFER YOU THE FULL PACKAGE:

We partner with other talented professionals to provide you with well-rounded support for what you need, from organizational strategy and business planning to finances and fundraising and video production.
