SILK SCREEN FILM FESTIVAL OFFICIAL SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

1. A signed entry form must be completed for each film submitted.
2. Films not in English must include English subtitles.
3. Films must be delivered to the Silk Screen office or screening location in the format listed on the entry form. We recommend that you insure your shipment, as Silk Screen is not responsible for items lost or damaged in shipment. You are responsible for all customs fees, duties, and other shipping charges.
4. All films must come with a zone free DVD or Blu-ray backup, free of watermarks. Films in DCP format must include key codes that work for the duration of the festival.
5. Silk Screen is responsible for return shipping. Films shipped on DVD or Blu-ray will not be returned unless specified when film is submitted.
6. You certify and warrant that you are rights holder of the film, and that you have the right to permit Silk Screen to display the film during the Silk Screen Film Festival. You agree to indemnify Silk Screen for any damages that Silk Screen may incur if you are not the rights holder.
7. By signing the entry form, you grant Silk Screen the right to display the film multiple times at theaters and screening rooms in the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area during the 2016 Silk Screen Film Festival.
8. Please include a press kit (synopsis, your biography and photo, and some stills and trailer from your film). You hereby grant Silk Screen the right to copy, distribute, publish, display in print and Online, and otherwise use such promotional materials and images from the film for promotional and marketing purposes.
