"The 1977 Bodega Weinert Malbec...rated 94, is a wine that competes with the finest red wines made anywhere in the world. It possesses an intensity and complexity that reminds me of a hypothetical blend of a super-concentrated vintage of La Mission-Haut-Brion and Cheval Blanc. The color is dark, nearly opaque garnet/purple. The nose offers up huge scents of cedar, black fruits, truffles, and anise. In the mouth, there is wonderful sweetness and expansive, chocolatey, berry fruit, full body, gobs of glycerin and intensity, as well as an explosively long finish. This wine, which is relatively young, is capable of lasting at least another 10-15 years." RMP August, 1992.

AMERICAN REDS

7500	L'Aventure, "Estate Cuvée", Paso Robles 2002 "The 2002 Estate Cuvee, a blockbuster blend of 50% Syrah, 45% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 5% Petit Verdot, reveals a saturated purple color as well as a gorgeous nose of blackberries, blueberries, flowers, licorice, and a background note of toasty oak. Full-bodied yet elegant with vibrant acidity, superb definition, and a multilayered, concentrated mouthfeel, it can be drunk now or cellared for a decade." RMP	s180
7501	Dominus Estate Napanook Vineyard, Napa Valley 1997 "...Asian spice, licorice, and blackberry and cherry notes with tobacco spice all add to this complex, very involved, yet gorgeously symmetrical Dominus. The wine is medium to full-bodied, very concentrated, and silky-textured..." RMP	s280

Knockout nose suggests a wine of strong extract and extends one's Brunello vocabulary: cherry, peach pit, licorice, lead pencil, honey, jasmine, botanical herbs, you name it. Dry, classic and sharply delineated, conveying a strong impression of energy allied with great delicacy. This manages to be very ripe, broad and silky and at the same time virtually weightless. Finishes sweet, pliant, minerally and very long. With aeration, though, this shut down dramatically in my glass and showed a leathery element..." ST	s94
