

Love We Have

Don't break down

Don't break down

You hear them say

Hold back now

the crazy now

They demand

Be a good girl

Be a good boy

Fake it loud

Sell your soul child

And your heart child

Perform, perform

And performance may be normal

But it isn't in line with life

I'm tired of these limiting lies

We all agree in spite

In spite our ignorance

I keep watch

Like a hawk

Your view of me

I make up

I hate up

My own self

It tears down

Destroys now

The love we have

And this love we keep choosing

Is stronger than our own minds

These hearts they keep fusing

To beam a pure light

So we may too be free

And this love we keep choosing

Is stronger than our own minds

These hearts they keep fusing

To beam a pure light

So we may all be free

So we may all be free
