Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

These times are tumultuous, just as those during the earthly life of our Lord. However, the Mystery of the Resurrection of Christ reminds us of the Hope we possess in the gift of his Mercy and defeat of sin and death. This time of year is both a moment of rejoicing and of committing ourselves to a life that is truly Christ-centered. I pray that each of you know the presence of the Risen Lord in your lives and families. In a special way, I would like to thank all of those who made Holy Week so beautiful, most especially the musicians, sacristans, servers, volunteers, parish staff, and my fellow Dominican Friars. Most especially I thank the many generous benefactors of this parish who year round help us to live and preach the Gospel of the Risen Lord.

~ The Very Rev. Vincent Kelber, O.P.
