PRAESIDIUM OF THE LEGION OF MARY

We are forming a praesidium of the Legion of Mary named Regina Caeli. Presently we have our meetings on Wednesdays from 2 – 3:30 PM at the chapel on the terrace floor of Calaroga Terrace, next door. Rev. Gabriel Mosher, O.P. is our spiritual advisor. For more information call John DeZell at 503.239.3312.

PARISH OFFICE LUNCH HOUR

Effective on Monday, January 11, the office will close from 12-1 PM instead of 1-2 PM. The front of the bulletin will be changed and new office hours will be posted on the doors. Please let us know if you have any questions!

Third Pillar: Study

The word “study” frequently has meant disciplined reading and memorizing cold information. For St. Dominic, however, study was something else: a way of going beyond a rote or pious understanding of Christian faith. Dominic sent his first followers to the universities. A university then was something new in Europe, a place where one could learn about the Christian tradition and about contemporary science. Albert the Great and his student Thomas Aquinas were at the forefront of showing how faith and theology in a time of university science could speak to a new time with its ideas and challenges.

Study for Dominicans means learning better what the Gospels are saying about Jesus and then expressing that in different ways. It means learning about the issues in one's own world (the only world that exists now) and making the teaching of Jesus alive and appealing for today.

Over the past eight centuries Dominicans have brought together cultures with the Catholic tradition: in the Spanish Dominicans' defense of the native Americans; in different approaches to the spiritual life like those of Catherine of Siena and Meister Eckhart; in the development of ecumenism, East and West; in the unfolding of lay ecclesial ministry; and in meeting the challenges of social change in modern times.

Study is intellectual light set free in a cultural world.

SENIOR LUNCHEON

All parishioners 60 and over are invited to a Luncheon held in their honor on Tuesday, February 16 at 1:00 PM. Please RSVP by calling the parish office at (503) 235-3163.

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS CAMPAIGN

Next week, our parish will take up the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This collection communicates the Gospel through Catholic social media activities and enriches our faith through podcasts, television, radio, and print media. Half of all proceeds remain in our archdiocese and support local needs, so please be generous in this collection.

MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY

Please note that on Monday, January 18, the Parish Office will be closed and there will be no CCD or Enrichment Classes. The liturgical schedule will not change.

2015 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

The Holy Rosary Parish Office will be mailing the 2015 contribution statements this month. Expect your statement before January 31. Please call the office with any questions. Thank you very much for the generosity and support you have shown throughout the past year!

DRINKS WITH DOMINICANS

Fr. Isaiah Mary Molano, O.P.

The Sword of Justice: The Rosary and Dominican Spirituality

This year is the 800th Anniversary of the founding of the Dominican Order. For centuries, the Order of Preachers has referred to the Rosary as "the sword of justice", their weapon of choice in battling sin and vice. How is the rosary intimately connecting with Dominican Spirituality and how can these insights encourage us to be the saints that we are called to be?

THANK YOU FROM THE LITTLE FLOWERS GIRL'S CLUB

The Little Flowers Girl's Club would like to extend a heartfelt THANK YOU to all who generously donated for our Socks of Love Project. For our December service project, the girls learned about the virtue of generosity and stuffed socks with toiletries and essentials; they were able to assemble more than 60 Socks! All the Socks of Love, plus additional socks and toiletries were distributed to Portland's homeless through the Newman Center. Thank you so very much!
