YOUNG ADULT DANCE CLASS

Saturday, May 16, 6:45-9:00 PM

Dance Style: Blues | Instructor: Andrew Gill | Free of charge

Dancing is the life skill you didn't know you needed. Ever found yourself at a wedding, party, or other such event with some desire to get out on the floor and bust a move, but you just feel uncomfortable or unsure of yourself? How would you like to change that? Learning to dance builds coordination and confidence, as well as improves brain health. It's also a lot of fun! Currently, we have one instructor, Andrew Gill, who will teach blues dancing. He has 8 years of experience with this style spanning lessons, social dance, and competition. Andrew likes to focus on creating a fun, safe, and comfortable partnership in his dancing. The first class will have a heavy emphasis on becoming comfortable moving and grooving, and on connecting with a partner. The material will be accessible, technical, fun, and widely-applicable.

WORLD YOUTH DAY

Archbishop Sample has invited young adults ages 18-35 from across western Oregon to join him next summer on the Archbishop's Young Adult Pilgrimage to World Youth Day (WYD) in Krakow, Poland. Besides the WYD events with Pope Francis, the pilgrimage will visit the Divine Mercy Shrine, Auschwitz concentration camp, and the Monastery of Jasna Gora, home of the original icon of Black Madonna of Czestochowa. Parents and grandparents are encouraged to invite their young adult children and grandchildren. For more information, please contact the parish office. Space is limited - initial payment and registration forms are due June 1, 2015. Over the course of the next year, we will be planning fundraisers to help reduce the cost of the pilgrimage. If you are interested in participating in the fundraisers in order to receive this help, please email Katie Edson at katherine.edson@gmail.com.

The Challenge of Order: Law and Religion in St. Thomas Aquinas

Br. Thomas Aquinas Pickett, O.P.

Tuesday, 19 May 2015
7:30 PM
Siena Hall

As the relationship between church and state, religion and law, becomes increasingly tense in the United States and across the world, it is important for Catholics to recover and possess a comprehensive sense of this relationship in the light of faith and reason. St. Thomas Aquinas, O.P., one of the most influential theologians of the Church, offers us today such an approach by discussing law and religion in terms of his unique, metaphysical conception of the nature of order. This approach, while challenging many modern prejudices and preconceptions regarding reality and the human person, gives us tools with which to endeavor upon personal and societal transformation.

St. Thomas Aquinas: Love Guru
Despite his reputation as the cold, calculating counterpart to St. Bonaventure, St. Thomas Aquinas nevertheless has a lot to say about love. Far from being purely abstract, St. Thomas' teaching on love offers incredible insights into how to grow in our relationships with our friends and with God.

QUO VADIS DAYS
Attention all Catholic young men ages 13-18! Do you know where you are going in life? The Lord Jesus has a great plan for you! You are invited to attend Quo Vadis Days camp to spend some time with other young men your age looking at the Lord's call in your life while having a great time. Quo Vadis Days is sponsored by the Office of Vocations and is led by priests and seminarians of the archdiocese. Quo Vadis Days will be held from June 22-25 at Camp Howard. The cost is only $50.00. Scholarships are available for those in financial need. Please visit www.qvdays.org for more information and to register.

RETREAT DAY WITH FR. JOHN BOYLE
In accordance with Archbishop Sample's consecration of our Portland Archdiocese to The Immaculate Heart of Our Lady of Fatima, and in honor of May being the month of Our Blessed Mother, the World Apostolate of Fatima will sponsor a First Saturday Devotion Retreat Day on Saturday, May 16. Fr. John Boyle, Pastor of St. Stephens Parish and Director of the Tribunal and Department of Canonical Services, will provide an insightful workshop focused on the First Saturday Devotion. The workshop will be hosted at St. Stephen's Church in the school gymnasium located at 1112 SE 41st Ave, Portland, OR 97214. An Italian themed lunch will be provided from 12:00 – 1:00 PM, followed by the First Saturday Devotion retreat from 1:00 – 3:00 PM. The day will conclude with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Questions? Please call 503-830-4258.
