DOMINICAN FORUM

"The Patristic Doctrine of Recapitulation in the Daily Life of the Christian"

Tuesday, 20 January 2015, 7:30 PM in Siena Hall

Fr. Emmerich Vogt, O.P.

The early Church Fathers, being very sensitive to how Sacred Scripture speaks of Jesus, see that in His short life, Jesus recapitulated the life of the Hebrew people in the Old Testament period. Since we are called as Christians to follow Christ and His life by the grace of the Sacraments, we must live according to the pattern of His life. And that pattern is the pattern of the Hebrew people. We will explore what this means for us today.

Happy Feast of the Baptism of the Lord! On behalf of the Dominican friars of Holy Rosary Priory, thank you for all your heartfelt Christmas greetings and prayers, delicious treats, and other thoughtful gifts. It is a great joy for us to serve the Church, especially this parish community. May God bless you for your continued kindness and prayerful support of our Dominican life and ministry!

- Fr. Stephen Maria, O.P.

Scripture study classes are starting up again with the study of Revelation. Following the course "Revelations, The Kingdom Yet to Come" by Ascension Press we will learn what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation represent. We will also explore how the Church is connected to the Kingdom of Heaven, especially through the Mass. This 10 part series begins Tuesday, January 27 at 6 PM in Siena Hall. ROE V. WADE RALLY

Join Archbishop Sample and other Oregonians on January 18 at 2:30 PM downtown in Pioneer Square, to mark the 41st sad anniversary of the legalization of abortion brought to our nation by the Roe v. Wade decision in January, 1973. The rally remembers the lives of more than 56 million children lost to abortion and calls upon our nation and its leaders to give unborn children the protection they deserve. The walk for life begins immediately following the rally. Bring the whole family and be a witness for God's gift of life!

Read about the way the Holy Names Sisters have shaped the local church and hope to do so in the future. It's the Year of Consecrated Life. See what a couple of woodworkers from St. Juan Diego Parish have achieved and hear some tips for staying healthy as seniors. Read about a priest who goes to open-mic nights as a way to connect young people with the church and see what options there are for gluten-intolerant Catholics who want to receive Communion. Get a look at the Missionaries of the Holy Spirit and experience an ordination in the Maronite Rite. Remember, the Sentinel is the free place to announce engagements, weddings, first Communions, baptisms, confirmations, and anniversaries.
