HOLY ROSARY PRIORY AND STAFF CHANGES

With Fr. Dismas Sayre moving to St. Dominic's Church in San Francisco, CA as director of the St. Jude Shrine and Fr. Gerald Buckley falling asleep in Christ, things have been quieter at Holy Rosary. This week Holy Rosary welcomes two new friars. The new director of the Rosary Center is Fr. Joseph Sergott, O.P. He entered the Order in 1989 and was ordained in 1996. He has served in many assignments including six years as the Assistant Provincial in Oakland. A student brother (one of our seminarians) is also arriving, Br. Joseph Selinger O.P., born in Vancouver, Canada with a degree in philosophy from the Collège Universitaire Dominicain in Ottawa, run by the Canadian Dominicans. He entered the Western Dominican Province as a novice in 2014. On staff, Rose Edson our administrative assistant is moving on to pursue studies in the medical field. We want to thank her for her five years of generous service to the parish! Katie Edson will fill her role at the front desk. Tess Jones has been hired as the event coordinator. She, her husband Brett, and son Bruno are parishioners at Holy Rosary. Many blessings to each of you as you begin new tasks! ~Fr. Vincent

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

SCOUTS AND S'MORES

Holy Rosary's Pack and Troop is looking for boys, age 6 through 17, who are interested in joining a traditional-Catholic-values-based Scouting program to have fun, learn useful life skills, go camping, earn Scouting's Catholic religious awards (presented personally by Archbishop Sample each Jan/Feb), while working toward attaining the ultimate rank of Eagle Scout - which is a significant resume-enhancer. The initial meeting of the new school year will occur on Tuesday, September 12th at 7P at Aquinas Hall. For further information, please call John Shepard at (503) 758-3542. S'mores will be available upon request.

REACH FAMILY INSTITUTE WORKSHOP

Parishioners are invited to attend "How to Unleash Your Child's Hidden Potential," a workshop for parents of children with special needs, on Saturday, September 9th, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, in the Siena Hall library of Holy Rosary Church in Portland. Parents will learn why their children struggle and, most importantly, what they can do at home to help them succeed. There is a cost to reserve your space at www.reachfamilyinstitute.org/workshops; interested families are encouraged to call 541-944-1340 for further information.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES USA - the national agency of Catholic Charities around the country - is leading the Church's response to the hurricane efforts. They are assessing the situation, accepting donations, and working closely with Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese of Galveston/Houston. They've asked for people to do the following:

Pray: God of hope and mercy, we lift up to you all victims of Hurricane Harvey, and those responding with assistance and aid. Protect all who are in any form of danger; provide practical help to all those in need; strengthen the weary; console the grieving and heal the suffering; and bless those engaged in disaster relief efforts with safety and courage. Help all people of goodwill to respond with compassion and generous hearts. Amen.

Give: Help relief efforts in wake of Hurricane Harvey by texting CCUSADISASTER to 71777. You can also give by calling 1-800-919-9338, visiting www.catholiccharitiesusa.org or by mail: PO Box 17066 Baltimore, MD 21297-1066 (put "Hurricane Harvey" in the memo line of the check). Funds raised will go towards local Catholic Charities agencies' efforts to assist families and individuals with shelter, food, and other immediate and long-term recovery needs.

At this time, Catholic Charities Oregon does not have the infrastructure or capacity to collect, store and send donated items to the victims in Texas. Monetary gifts are needed most. Please consider making a financial gift directly to Catholic Charities USA to assist their effort in aiding our neighbors in the Houston area.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BREAKFAST

Sunday September 10th after 7:00, 9:00, and 11:00 AM Masses

HIGH SCHOOL CCD

St. Peter calls us to "Always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence" (1 Peter 3:15, RSV-CE). This fall, we will be offering a course aimed at preparing our youth to do just that. Based on the Beginning Apologetics books from San Juan Catholic Seminars and materials from Catholic Answers, the course will be taught by Suchi Myjak on Sunday mornings after the 9 AM Mass. Post-Confirmation high-school students are invited to join the class and learn how to respond to atheists, relativists, Protestants, and others who question their beliefs, and present the Catholic perspective on major issues based on reason, Scripture, and history. We will also practice answering typical objections and learn about resources to find answers. It is our hope that this course will both enrich students' understanding of their faith and enable them to defend it ably and charitably. Our main ambition is to ensure that pupils leave serenely confident that there is a convincing reply to the strongest criticisms that can be brought against Catholicism.

SUNDAY OFFICE HOURS

Starting on September 10, the office will resume its usual Sunday hours of 8:00 AM – 1:00 PM.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: CHILDREN AND TEENS

Online registration begins September 11, with forms and packets available in Siena Hall after all Masses the weekend of September 9/10 and September 17 after the Sunday Masses at 7, 9, and 11 am and before the Mass at 1 pm. Sacramental year packets (blue for First Communion and red for Confirmation) will also be available at registration. 1st grade through 9/10 grade Confirmation classes are on Monday afternoons in Aquinas Hall. Although new registration and book order forms are not yet online, calendars for the 2017-18 academic year are now available on the parish website. 1st through 8th grade CCD begins September 25, and Confirmation preparation for students in high school begins the following Monday, October 2. The post-Confirmation seminar series will continue to be offered twice a month on Sunday mornings; please see the bulletin for more information on that class.

Paula Foster is returning to teach our interactive class for first graders, which also serves as important preparation for First Communion preparation in grade two. We are fortunate to once again have an impressive team of teachers, and are grateful to them for their years of dedication. We are no longer offering kindergarten, there has been some interest in an independent co-op "pre-K/Kindergarten" class. We have materials and supplies available if this project interests you. Although this would not part of our regular program, the parish can offer space in Siena Hall. As this is the same facility used for home school enrichment classes and socialization for moms and younger siblings during CCD, it might be an advantage worth considering.

CHILDREN'S ADORATION

Friday, September 8, 7:00 PM

All 3rd-8th grade children are invited to join us for Children's Adoration on second Fridays of the month, 7:00-8:00 PM. A Pizza & Social hour will follow in Siena Hall.

T4:12

Friday, September 8, 7:00 PM

Holy Rosary's High School Youth Fellowship Group will be meeting on second Fridays of the month from 7-9 PM. All 14-18 year old teens are invited to enjoy music, fun, food, and fellowship in the classrooms in Siena Hall. Questions? Contact Fr. Gabriel at gabriel@holyroarypdx.org.

TOLTON: FROM SLAVE TO PRIEST

Saturday, October 7, 7:00 PM

Tolton: From Slave to Priest, the powerful live production performed by actor Andrae Goodnight and directed by Leonardo Defilippis of Saint Luke Productions, will be presented at Aquinas Hall in Portland on Saturday, October 7 at 7:00 p.m. The event is sponsored by Holy Rosary Parish. Meet Fr. Augustus Tolton, the first African American priest, in this one-man multimedia performance. From his dramatic escape from slavery to his courageous struggle in the face of prejudice, Fr. Tolton's inspiring life centers around his message of reconciliation and hope. This riveting drama is filled with all the elements of professional theater, runs 90 minutes, and is suitable for ages 10 and up. Admission is $10 for adults and $5 for youth 18 & under. For tickets and additional information, contact Holy Rosary Parish Office at 503-235-3163 or visit www.holyrosarypdx.org.
