A sprawling 1200 square metres of undercover space solely dedicated to fresh produce, Danks Street Produce Merchants is a haven for foodies and discerning shoppers. Brought to you by the Quattroville family behind Fourth Village Providore, Danks Street Produce Merchants is passionate about giving Sydney a market the way markets used to be. Browse the huge range of cheese, homemade smallgoods and charcuterie available at the delicatessen and request your favourite cuts at the butcher. You might then like to pick up bread, pastries, flowers and the freshest selection of fruit and vegetables. If your purchases are weighing you down, enjoy a coffee and the seasonal menu at the Mezzanino Ristorante, and imagine yourself in the balmy, Italian summer.
