Why? Isaiah 55:10-11).

“For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart”
(NASB, Hebrews 4:12).

“But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does”
(NASB, James 1:25).

“Until I [Paul] come, give attention to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation and teaching” (NASB, 1 Timothy 4:13).

How? Bring your Bible anytime during the hours and location listed above and Val Cook, (JeffandValCook@gmail.com, 641-864-3307) will meet you there with a portion of the Bible to read, a bookmark to take home, and materials to write a note of thanks to Governor Reynolds. You can call to sign for a specific time as an individual or for a group of people. Walk-ins are welcome too. It's simple; it's rewarding; it's a way to honor God and His Word.
