REUNION CONCERT DOYLE-WHITING

Doyle-Whiting celebrate 50th Anniversary Tickets Available

Auburn, NY, August 3, 2017– Mark Doyle and Joe Whiting will reunite in concert to celebrate their 50th Anniversary of making music together. The concert will benefit The Central New York Tomatofest. The Auburn Public Theatre will host the concert, Saturday, September 9th at 7:30. Two opening acts are included in this event: SAMMY Hall of Famer, Donna Colton and Exchange Street Records Artist, Luke Mock. The concert is part of the schedule of activities that will happen throughout Tomatofest weekend in downtown Auburn.

Advanced Sale Tickets are $30 and Student Rush Tickets are $35 and can be purchased online from the Auburn Public Theatre's Website (<http://auburnpublictheater.org/event/community-tomatofest/>). There is a link from www.cnytomatofest.org as well. Tickets will be $35 at the door depending on availability.

This project is made possible, in part, with public funds from NYSCA's Decentralization Program, administered locally by the Auburn Public Theater. TomatoFest is grateful to receive an additional grant from the Senator John A. DeFrancisco Arts in Cayuga County Program Fund. The grants provide the music and entertainment.

All Proceeds from the Tomatofest Benefit the Food Pantries of Cayuga County. The Tomatofest is Friday, September 8th and Saturday, September 9th in Downtown Auburn, N.Y. A complete schedule of events is on the Tomatofest web page.
