FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Spring Events at Fraunces Tavern® Museum

NEW YORK, N.Y. -- Fraunces Tavern Museum announces an exciting lineup of events for the Spring 2018 season. From April-June, guests can enjoy eleven different events, such as a variety of walking tours, evening lectures, concerts, and free programs. Highlights include The Battles of Lexington and Concord Dinner & Fraunces Tavern Museum Book Award Presentation on April 23 honoring this year’s winner and guest speaker Rusell Shorto for his book Revolution Song: A Story of American Freedom; the annual Flag Day Parade on June 14th; and Night at the Museums on June 19; which is being presented in conjunction with the 2018 River to River Festival.

“We are kicking off the season will a full offering of diverse programming,” says Education and Public Programs Director Jacqueline Masseo. “From returning staples like our Spring Walking Tour and Evening Lectures, to our brand new Glass Armonica concert and the always festive Night at the Museums, we can’t wait to see you again and again this spring!”

To view the Museum’s full schedule of events and for more information regarding details and ticket prices, please visit our website and Facebook page.

###

About Fraunces Tavern Museum:
Fraunces Tavern Museum’s mission is to preserve and interpret the history of the American Revolutionary era through public education. This mission is fulfilled through the interpretation and preservation of the Museum’s collections, landmarked buildings and varied public programs that serve the community. You can stand in the room where General George Washington said farewell to his officers and explore seven additional galleries that focus on America’s War for Independence and the preservation of early American history. To learn more, visit our website at frauncestavernmuseum.org.

Press Contact:
Amy Kennard
Marketing Coordinator, Fraunces Tavern Museum
marketing@frauncestavernmuseum.org
212-425-1778, ext. 218