

Mountain Stream Meditation

presents an evening of Sound Healing Meditation

with Miyu Tamamura

First Thursdays of the Month

2018 - Dec 6

2019 - Jan 3, Feb 7

6:00 to 7:00 pm

After the session on Dec 6, join us for a casual holiday gathering. You're invited to bring a simple treat or baked good to share.

Reset and recharge with the gentle sounds of the Crystal Singing Bowls

- Vibrational healing is deeply relaxing and therapeutic
- Chairs, cushions and blankets are available for your comfort or bring your own.
- We will be in stillness and silence for over an hour.

(This practice is not appropriate for young children.)

As part of Buddhist tradition, there will be an opportunity to make a donation which supports the teacher and the Center. We gently suggest a gift of $5 -$15 per person. All offerings are graciously received.

Miyu Tamamura is a Certified Shiatsu Practitioner and began her healing practice in Nevada City, California in 2003.

Miyu also uses Alchemy Crystal Singing Bowls for vibrational sound healing to deepen the therapeutic effects.

Miyu holds a Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from Kyoto University of Art, studying Sho, Japanese calligraphy. Miyu practices and teaches Sho and enjoys creating calligraphy art for private collection and commercial projects. Her work has been sold as prints and cards nationwide. Her passion for the healing arts and calligraphy has blossomed into public calligraphy art performances.

Miyu's healing practice is never apart from her love of nature, art, music, poetry and silence. She loves to sing, dance and is committed to deep transformation and healing in herself and others.
