Virtual Daylong with
Ayya Anandabodhi

Wisdom and Love

Saturday, August 22, 2020

10:00 am - 3:00 pm PST

Ayya Anandabodhi first encountered the Buddha's teachings in her early teens, igniting a deep interest in the Buddha's Path of Awakening. She lived and trained as a nun in the Thai Forest Tradition at Amaravati and Chithurst monasteries in England from 1992 until 2009, when she moved to the US to help establish Aloka Vihara, a training monastery for women. Her practice and teaching are guided by early Buddhist scriptures and through nature's pure and immediate Dhamma. In 2011 she took full Bhikkhuni Ordination, joining the growing number of women who are reclaiming this path given by the Buddha.

As we navigate these challenging times, Ayya will direct us back to the natural qualities of Wisdom and Love that are accessible to us all. These two qualities encompass the Buddha's Path and, when balanced, bring freedom to our own hearts and minds and into the lives of others. Drawing on ancient wisdom and immediate experience, we will explore and reawaken these qualities together, bringing them forth for the benefit of all beings.

Registration is necessary to receive the Zoom link. The daylong registration fee is a sliding scale of $20 - $35. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away for lack of funds.
