ART for SALE

JESUIT EAGLE
 by Jose Cisneros, circa 1961

Original and unique artwork by famed artist Jose Cisneros. This one of a kind piece dating from 1961 is the emblem designed for the Jesuit High School in El Paso.

Father Vessels wanted it to be an eagle that represented two sides of the border, as both US and Mexico have eagles as their national birds. See it in person at the Crossland Gallery. Price available on request! Call Karla 915.534.7377

SPRING into action and VOLUNTEER at the El Paso Art Association today. Are you interested in art, meeting new people and have some time on your hands. Many opportunities to choose from that will help us with our mission to promote art in the El Paso Community. Assistance with the Soldier Art Workshop is greatly needed. Please call Karla Zanelli at the Crossland Gallery! 915.534.7377

Congrats to all involved! Elevate your art fundraiser at the IMA!

Kudos to Judy Hampton and all the artists & volunteers that help make Elevate Your Art a success! El Paso's finest artists and art groups came together for a museum close to our hearts, the International Museum of Art. The outstanding quality of the original works submitted was phenomenal. Something for everyone!
