Chinese hats for collecting oyster spats in the wild. The hats are made of polyethylene (PE) and are later to be covered with a layer of calcium carbonate on which the spats settle on. Available either in racks of 7x40 hats or in pipes of 40 hats. Also available in configurations made to order.