- Start / Finish Location

All event distances will start and finish in the gardens out front of the Eynesbury Homestead

- Eating Options

Number 1 option should be pack the picnic or get something from the Eynesbury Farmers Market and relax in the gardens but there are also several dining options for you to enjoy from the elegant Homestead Restaurant and cafe for lunch with barista coffees and alcohol also available to help you relax.

- Event Parking

Eynesbury is a small township that will have the Farmers Market on at the same time to help compliment the community feel on a Sunday morning. With this will mean parking at the actual Homestead may be limited. With the Big V Trail Series in its 1st year we believe you should be able to get a safe and legal park along Eynesbury Rd and walk in.

- Aid Stations

PLEASE NOTE THE BIG V TRAIL SERIES WILL NOT PROVIDE DISPOSABLE CUPS ON COURSE, COMPETITORS ARE TO USE OWN HYDRATION CARRYING VESSELS OR FOLDABLE CUPS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE ON THE DAY FOR AID STATION FILLING.

1 Aid station @ 8.5km mark of 12km and 3km mark of 6km.

Each aid station will have water and lollies.

- First Aid

St John's crew of 2 will be stationed at the Event HQ please contact Dion on 0408 207 196 if requiring assistance during the race contact details also available on the back of bib. Phone communication will be on-hand in case of an emergency.

- Withdrawals

If a competitor withdraws from the Event they must advise the course officials of their withdrawal immediately. This will allow us to see you are safe and can direct you to appropriate assistance if required.

It will also save time and heartache of officials searching the course for non finishers when they are already back having a cider.

Failure to notify may jeopardise your future series events.

- Key Contacts

All key contacts will be listed on the reverse side of your race bib.

- Results

Official timing supplier Tomato Timing will upload results to tomatotiming.racetecresults.com/ that evening with link being shared to Flying Brick Bellarine Sunset Run website & facebook page.
