THE EXPERTISE TO HELP YOU GROW YOUR BUSINESS

Let the knowledge, connections and resources of the Business Development Branch help you capitalize on your Ontario investment decision.

There are many benefits to doing business in Ontario – the province is the gateway to over 415 million consumers, the centre for agricultural innovation and food and beverage processing (with more than $32 B in sales) and home to a stable, skilled and well-educated labour force. If you're investing in a new business in Ontario, we would like to help you take advantage of them all.

So, whether you need assistance with site location, workforce and training support or manufacturing and transportation logistics, give us a call. We have the expertise to help you grow your business..

Knowledge

We have the knowledge to help you make better business decisions.

- From business development professionals, to food sector expertise, to environmental practice advisors, to technology experts, our team will work with you to meet your wide range of information needs.
- Whether it's potatoes or polymers, packaging technology or transportation logistics, we can help you access the essential information you need to make the most informed decision.
- We work from within the public sector, which means we have a complete perspective on government regulations at all levels. It's yours for the asking.

Connections

We have the connections to help you maximize your opportunities for growth and development.

- When you meet with our team, you open the door to a network of possibilities. We can connect you to the key industry stakeholders that can best meet your business needs.
- We are also plugged into the community of suppliers, service providers, retailers and researchers that you might need to support your growing business. We would be happy to make the introductions.
- And of course, we know government. At all levels. This means that we can work with you to build the relationships with government agencies and organizations that will serve you best.

Resources

We have the resources to keep you current in a competitive environment.

- There are a number of valuable programs and services available to businesses in Ontario. Often, the challenge lies in knowing which ones will suit you best. Let us assess your needs, guide you toward the appropriate resources, and help you access the services you need.
- Explore our collection of publications on a wide range of topics. Or attend one of the many seminars and workshops that are offered across the province. If you want to know about hot industry trends and key industry topics in Ontario, we have the resources to help.
- Our consulting services can help guide you as you develop and implement strategies focused on honing your winning edge.
