

HOME – Week One Discussion Questions

1. Share about a transition that was hard for you. Why was it hard? What got you through that season?
2. Where do you feel God is calling you to invest more deeply where you are? What would that look like?
3. Where are you struggling to be patient with the process?
4. What are you currently celebrating? What opportunities has God given you to enjoy the moment? Are you taking those opportunities?

Week Two Discussion Questions

1. What does it look like to be an exile?
2. God tells His people to work for the benefit of their captors. How would you take this instruction if you were in their shoes?
3. Shalom is "the way things ought to be." Why do you think God wants us to work for the shalom of others?
4. What are practical ways we can work for the "peace and prosperity" of our city? Let's brainstorm some ways we can do this as a community group!
5. Prayer is a core part of being #ForNona. How have you seen prayer at work in your life? How can we pray for our community? Let's end our time doing that now.

Week Three Discussion Questions

1. Process the statement: "Shalom has been vandalized." How have you personally seen the affects of this reality?
2. What is something in your life that has felt like a mistake, but you now see as God's grace?
3. What would it look like for you to be salt & light in your home/work/church?
4. How can you practically pursue the "shalom" of Lake Nona.
