GENERAL REGULATIONS

GENERAL

A. UNDERTAKING OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

1. The Telephone Company does not undertake to transmit messages but offers the use of its facilities for the transmission of communications.

2. The calling party and the called party are required to establish their identities to each other as may be necessary in the course of the communication and the responsibility for so doing rests with those parties.

B. USE OF SERVICE AND FACILITIES

1. The service and facilities furnished are intended only for communications in which the customer or user authorized by the Telephone Company has a direct interest except where use by others is casual.

2. Services and facilities shall not be used for any purpose for which a payment or other compensation shall be received by them or either of them from any person, firm or corporation for such use, or in the collection, transmission or delivery of any communications for others -- except that these provisions do not apply to the handling of messages accepted for transmission by customers who are engaged in public telegraph business nor to the transmission of communications on private lines, to, from, within and between air carriers, where the customer is an aeronautical communications company licensed under the Aviation Service rules of the Federal Communications Commission to operate stations in the aeronautical mobile and fixed services.

C. LIABILITY OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

1. In the event of an interruption to the service which is not due to the negligence or willful act of the customer, upon notice and application by the customer an allowance will be made for the time the interruption continues.

2. The liability of the Telephone Company for damages arising out of mistakes, omissions, interruptions, delays, errors or defects in transmission, or failures or defects in facilities furnished by the Telephone Company, occurring in the course of furnishing service or other facilities and not caused by the negligence of the customer, or of the Telephone Company in failing to maintain proper standards of maintenance and operation and to exercise reasonable supervision shall in no event exceed an amount equivalent to the proportionate charge to the customer for the period of service during which such mistake, omission, interruption, delay or error or defect in transmission, or failure or defect in facilities occurs.

3. 5. As a part of the service a directory for each exchange is published from time to time, but as experience demonstrates that errors and omissions will occur with more or less frequency, the Telephone Company is not liable for errors in or omissions from Directories except in cases where a specific charge has been made for a listing; in no event shall the Telephone Company be liable for any such error or omission beyond the amount of such charge.

6. The Telephone Company is not liable for any unavoidable defacement of or damage to the premises of a customer (or authorized user) resulting from the attachment of the Telephone Company’s facilities on such premises or from the installation or removal thereof.

CLASSIFICATION AND USE OF TELEPHONE SERVICES

A. APPLICATION OF BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE RATES

1. The determination as to whether telephone service should be classified as Business or Residence is based on the character of the use to be made of the service. Service is classified as business service where the use is primarily or substantially of a business, professional, institutional, or otherwise occupational nature. Where the business use, if any, is incidental and where the major use is of a social or domestic nature, service is classified as residence service if installed in a residence.

2. Business rates apply at the following locations, among others:
   a. In offices, stores, and factories, and in quarters occupied by clubs, lodges, fraternal societies, schools, colleges, libraries, hospitals and other business establishments.
   b. In residence locations where a place of residence is in the immediate proximity to a place of business and it is evident that the telephone in the residence is or will be used for business purposes; and in residence locations where an extension is located at a place where business rates would apply.
   c. In the residence of a practicing physician, dentist, veterinary, surgeon, or other medical practitioner who has no service at business rates at another location.
   d. In any residence location where there is a substantial business use of the service and the customer has no service elsewhere at business rates.

3. Residence rates apply at the following locations among others:
   a. In private residences; in the residential portion of hotels, apartment houses, boarding houses, churches, or institutions when the use of the service is confined to the domestic use of the customer and the listings of a business character are not furnished.
   b. In the residence of a practicing physician, dentist, veterinary, surgeon or other medical practitioner provided that such residence is not a part of an office building and provided the customer has service charged for at business rates at another location.
   c. In the residence of a nurse.
B. LOCATION AND USE OF TELEPHONE SERVICES

2. Use of Business and Residence Telephone Services:
   a. Business subscriber telephone service - as distinguished from Paystation service and excluding service in hotels - is furnished only for use by the customer, his employees and representatives - except as otherwise provided in the Telephone Company's Tariffs.
   b. Residence telephone service is furnished only for use by the customer and members of the customer's domestic establishment - except as use by others is permitted in certain cases as provided for elsewhere in these Regulations or the Telephone Company's Tariffs.

Beyond these requirements additional directories or information will be furnished as available at a reasonable charge.

2. Directories regularly furnished to customers are the property of the Telephone Company and are loaned to customers; they are to be returned to the Telephone Company upon request. No binder, holder, or auxiliary cover of an advertising nature, except such as may be provided by or with consent of the Telephone Company, shall be used in connection with any directory furnished by the Telephone Company.

E. TELEPHONE NUMBERS

The assignment of a number to a subscriber's telephone service is made at the discretion of the Telephone Company. The subscriber has no priority right in the number, and the Telephone Company may make such changes in telephone numbers, including the central office designation, as in its judgment the requirements of the service may demand.

F. ADEQUACY OF FACILITIES

The furnishing of certain services and facilities may involve impairment of transmission and in the interest of providing a service satisfactory to all users that might be connected on a call, the customer is required to contract for such equipment in place of or in addition to that regularly provided as may be necessary.

GENERAL REGULATIONS
ESTABLISHMENT AND FURNISHING OF SERVICE AND FACILITIES

A. APPLICATIONS

1. Applications for service and facilities made verbally or in writing become contracts upon the establishment of the service or facility.

2. Any change in rates or regulations prescribed by public authority having jurisdiction modifies all terms and regulations of contracts to the extent of such change.

3. An applicant who otherwise qualified for the immediate establishment of service may take over the telephone number of a subscriber discontinuing that number or an available telephone number listed in the current directory, provided that an arrangement suitable to the Telephone Company is made to pay all outstanding charges and to assume all contractual obligations against the number.

B. INITIAL PERIOD OF SERVICE

1. Unless otherwise specified herein or elsewhere in the Telephone Company's Tariffs, the minimum contract period is one month from the date service is established and the minimum charge is the established rate for one month.

2. In lieu of contracts for the required initial period, the Telephone Company may permit the payment of special installation charges or termination charges, the regular Service Connection Charges and installation charges to apply in addition.

C. TERMINATION OF SERVICE

1. Customers for other than normal main station service may be required to enter into an agreement to compensate the Telephone Company for its loss in the event service is prematurely discontinued. Such compensation in the form of termination charges shall be the original cost installed plus the cost of removal, less the realized salvage, accrued book depreciation and any contribution in aid of construction. Such charges may be applicable where extraordinary facilities are required to provide main station service to a customer or such facilities as suitable for providing service to that customer only or is greatly in excess of the necessary requirement of the address or area served.

A special contract may be drawn up for termination of services in lieu of 1. preceding.

2. Contracts for service or facilities may not be terminated except upon advance notice to the Telephone Company, at which time there is due and payable all unpaid charges or guarantees for the period the service, or facilities have been furnished, and all applicable minimum and termination charges.

3. Where a contract for service with a one-month minimum contract period is cancelled before the establishment of service is completed, a charge equal to the costs incurred by the Telephone Company - not to exceed the minimum service charge specified - is applied if all or a portion of the facilities has been installed.

4. Where a contract covering facilities is terminated prior to the expiration of the contract period, a termination charge is made based on the cost of installing and removing (transportation and labor) the facilities. Of the amount so determined the termination charge is in such proportion as the initial contract period bears to the full initial contract period.

5. With respect to the original contract, minimum and termination charges are waived where a new customer takes over the contract (for the unexpired period thereof) for the service and facilities to be furnished at the same location without lapse of service, and assumes all unpaid charges on the original contract. Minimum and termination charges involved in the original contract are also waived where a new customer takes over the service and facilities covered by the original contract under the conditions stated - except as to payment of unpaid charges - and executes a new contract for the full required minimum period. In either case, minimum and termination charges apply for any service or facilities furnished under the original contract which are not retained by the new customer.

D. CONSTRUCTION CHARGES, SPECIAL

1. Special, based on cost in the form of installation charges, monthly charges, or both, are applied in addition to the usual service connection charges and monthly rates when, because of unusual investment or expense, the revenue does not reasonably compensate the Company - when facilities are provided beyond the standard allowance, when conditions require the provision of special equipment or unusual plant construction, installation or maintenance, or when the customer's location requires annual payment for licenses or agreement for the use of Public or Private land.

2. Except as specified, title to all construction provided wholly or partly at a customer's expense is vested in the Company.

3. E. SERVICE DROPS

1. Facilities Provided of Type Determined by Telephone Company

Service Drops are provided either by aerial facilities - on poles of the Telephone Company or of other companies - or by underground facilities (buried), and, except as covered in 2 below, the type of facilities used is determined by the Telephone Company from the conditions involved. For facilities of the type so determined, the following treatment applies:

a. A Service Drop measuring not more than 250 feet is provided without construction charge. For the measured distance in excess of the 250 foot allowance, a facility charge applies as described elsewhere in the Company's tariffs.

b. The measurement is the airline distance from the center of the highway paralleling the general distribution plant (located on or off the highway) to the terminal or Drop at the customer's building, or the airline distance from the distribution plant to that terminal, whichever is shorter.

2. Facilities Provided of Different Type than 1 above.

When from the conditions involved the Telephone Company determines that an aerial Service Drop should be provided and in lieu thereof the applicant desires underground or buried facilities, or when aerial facilities are used to provide service or channels to a customer and subsequently the customer requests that such facilities be placed underground, the following applies:

a. Where cable is laid in conduit, the underground conduit shall be constructed and maintained by or at the expense of the customer and in addition the customer shall pay the cost of the underground cable - including the cost of installing it - less the estimated cost to the Telephone Company of installing such aerial facilities (not in excess of the 250 foot allowance specified in C.1.a.) as would be (or is) required to furnish the same service. The underground conduit shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications furnished by the Telephone Company; ownership of the conduit is retained by the customer. The duct or ducts required in the underground conduit by the Telephone Company to furnish service shall be reserved for its exclusive use.

b. Cable installed in conduit will be maintained and replaced at the expense of the Telephone Company where the conduit has been inspected in place by the Telephone Company and approved, but repairs or replacements of cable in conduit or trench made necessary by damages caused by the customer or the customer's representatives will be made only at the customer's expense.

c. Where facilities are changed from aerial to underground or buried, in addition to the above, the customer is charged the cost of dismantling and removing the aerial facilities in addition to 2.a. preceding.

3. Computation of Facility Charge

a. The facility charge will be based on the fully allocated cost for Service Wire for extensions in excess of the standard allowances. (C)

b. All service drop facilities so constructed shall be the property of the Telephone Company.
GENERAL REGULATIONS

MILEAGE MEASUREMENTS

A. AIRLINE MILEAGE (Except for Message Toll Service)

1. Interexchange airline distances are measured between the points involved.

2. For the purpose of determining airline mileages vertical and horizontal grid lines have been established across Michigan. The spacing between horizontal grid lines represents a distance of one coordinate unit. This unit is the square root of 0.1, expressed in airline miles. A four-digit vertical (V) and a four-digit horizontal (H) coordinate is computed for each rate center from its latitude and longitude location by use of appropriate map projection equations. A pair of V-H coordinates locates a rate center, for determining airline mileages, at a particular intersection of an established vertical grid line with an established horizontal grid line. The distance between any two rate centers is the airline mileage computed between their respective coordinate intersections, as explained in 3. following.

3. To determine the rate distance between any two rate centers proceed as follows:
   a. Obtain “V” and “H” coordinate for each rate center.
   b. Obtain the difference between the “V” coordinates of the two rate centers. Obtain the difference between the “H” coordinates.
   c. Square each difference obtained in b. above.
   d. Add the square of the “V” difference and the “H” difference obtained in c. above.
   e. Divide the sum of the squares obtained in d. above by 10.
   f. Obtain the square root of the result obtained in e. above. This is the rate distance in miles. (Fractional miles considered as full miles.)
