

LSU COMPLIANCE

OUTSIDE ATHLETIC TRAINER/CONSULTANT USE AGREEMENT

In accordance with NCAA regulations, a student-athlete in any sport may receive assistance from an individual outside the institution (e.g., consultant, professional instructor) without the individual being counted in the institution's coaching limitations, provided:

- An LSU staff member (institutional or athletics) is not involved in any way in arranging for such activity.
- Institutional coaching staff members (includes strength and conditioning staff) do not observe such activity.
- The activity does not occur at the institution's facility (either during voluntary workouts or during regular institutional practice sessions).
- The student-athlete(s) pay all the fees (at the going rate) associated with the activity (documentation of payment required).
 - a. Payments must be made only by student-athlete directly or his/her parents/legal guardians
- The student-athlete(s) may not receive preferential compensation arrangements (e.g., discount rate, deferred payments) not available to the general public.
- Outside trainer/consultant may not view student-athlete engage in countable or voluntary activity on campus individually or with his/her team.

The following are examples of an outside consultant:

- Speed trainer
- Swing coach (golf, tennis, baseball)
- Strength trainer
- Personal trainer/ coach

Prior to using an outside consultant, you must notify the following staff members:

- Head Coach
- Weight Room staff member (if applicable)
- Compliance staff

As an LSU student-athlete you will be required to provide copies of invoices and proof of payment for such services to the compliance staff to verify payment.
