Mark Pfeifer was born into a family ministry, and represents the fourth generation of ministers from the Pfeifer family. Mark began traveling full-time in 1981, and in 1983, he began to pursue his education and to fulfill an evangelistic call upon his life. After 8 years evangelizing, Mark and his wife Nicki, birthed a ministry in Chillicothe, Ohio. In 1991, they started Open Door Ministries, a local congregation with a greater vision for their region, state, and the nations of the world. Through the years, Mark and Nicki have worked to fulfill their ministry vision by expanding their leadership to include several churches in the United States and abroad. Mark oversees SOMA, a network of non-denominational churches. He and Nicki have three children, Andrew (and wife, Lyndsie), Alexandra Pfeifer Eldridge, (and husband, Bryce), Austin, and one granddaughter, Edyn Nicole Pfeifer.
