BRIAN JUSTIN CRUM TO PERFORM AT GAY SOFTBALL WORLD SERIES

Appearances Scheduled For Event's Opening Ceremonies Celebration

PORTLAND, OR (AUGUST 15, 2017) – Today, the Rose City Softball Association (RCSA) is thrilled to announce one of their attractions to perform at the Opening Ceremonies celebration which kicks off the international “Gay Softball World Series” (GSWS) in Portland next month.

“This ceremony is shaping up to be the biggest in GSWS history and it’s right here in Portland,” said an excited Tim Bias, the GSWS Events Chair. “Brian Justin Crum is a dazzling performer, we’re thrilled to feature him as just one of our entertainers for Opening.”

Crum was the fourth runner up in the “America’s Got Talent” NBC Television competition show. He began his career in his home town of San Diego before moving onto the popular Broadway show “Wicked,” having also appeared in musicals such as “Tarzan,” “Grease,” “Altar Boyz,” and “Jesus Christ Superstar.” “Brian is just a really terrific out-and-proud performer. We’re anticipating an absolutely electric show for our players,” said Bias.

More about Crum can be found on his website: brianjustincrum.com. “We have more exciting acts to add to our lineup so stay tuned,” said Bias with a sly twinkle in his eye.

The GSWS Opening Ceremonies take place on the evening of September 4th beginning at 4:00pm at the Rose Quarter outdoor venue. The event kicks off the week-long tournament of 186 teams from all over the United States and Canada.
