

Terri Thompson

Director Property Management, Northern Indiana

Experience

Terri Thompson joined Bradley Company in April of 2017. In her role as Director of Property Management she is responsible for the effective management of the commercial property management across Northern Indiana to increase the value of individual properties while leading a team of property management professionals to achieve operational, financial and department performance goals. She works directly with accounting to establish policies and procedures with regards to the property administration functions and Yardi software.

Prior to joining Bradley, Terri has developed an extensive background in numerous core disciplines of asset services to include:

- Controller, Kimco Corporation: Responsible for all accounting, financial reporting and property administration functions for two regions Southeast & Puerto Rico totaling over 12 Million GLA approximately 76 assets encompassing 2,200 tenants
- Director of Property Management, Wolford Development: Responsible for the development of the property management department, including full responsibility of all phases of property administration, property accounting and tenant coordination
- Asset Manager, Eden's Company: Responsible to maximize the value of the current assets while developing a strategic plan for the growth and value appreciation of 47 assets encompassing 5.2 million SF.

Professional Affiliations/ Accreditations:

- CCIM: Certified Commercial Investment Manager,
- CSM: Certified Shopping Center Manager
- CMD: Certified Marketing Director

Civic Involvement:

- Member: North Carolina Realtors - Charlotte Chapter
- Member: National Association of Realtors, 6 Years
- Member: CCIM – Charlotte Chapter, 6 Years
- Member: International Council of Shopping Centers

Education

Bachelors of Business Administration
Columbia College, Columbia, MO

Contact

tthompson@bradleyco.com
t 803.463.0948