OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provide college scholarships and educational counseling to military children who have lost a parent in the line of duty.

- We are dedicated to serving the families of servicemembers from all branches of the armed forces who have died as a result of combat casualties, military training accidents, service-related illnesses, suicide, as well as other duty-related deaths as ruled by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

The vision of Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation is to ensure that every child of a fallen patriot receives all necessary college funding.

- We believe a college education is the single most important gift we can give these children.
- We believe this is an important investment in the future of America.
- We believe this is one of the best ways we can honor those who died defending our country.

THE HISTORY

In 1989, five days before Christmas, Sergeant William Delaney Gibbs from the 7th Infantry Division was killed in action during Operation Just Cause in Panama, leaving behind a young wife and an unborn daughter. Our Founder and CEO, David Kim, served with Sergeant Gibbs and was inspired by his sacrifice and never forgot about Sergeant Gibb’s or his daughter.

David Kim returned to the United States and founded Children of Fallen Patriots in 2002. Since 2002, Children of Fallen Patriots has grown in its mission and vision to extend peace of mind through college scholarships to Gold Star families in all 50 states, in all branches of the military.
THE NEED

Research conducted by The Lucas Group on behalf of Children of Fallen Patriots found that nearly 20,000 dependents have been left behind by troops killed in the line of duty over the past 35 years. Many surviving families struggle to make ends meet with 63% of surviving spouses making less than $50,000 per year.

With no central repository of information from which to find these children, the organization works to find each and every one of these children to assist them in their growing success.

- Government programs do not cover the full cost of college nor do they reach all the deserving children and not every surviving family is aware of this help.
- The process of finding and applying for help is confusing and burdensome for children and families.
- Help is generally available only in small increments.
- The average gap in funding is $32,000 per student.
WHY SUPPORT FALLEN PATRIOTS

Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation’s emotional support is just as important to families as our financial support.

• Surviving widows and children have had a huge hole torn in their lives.
• They often need a friend and a mentor to share their experiences, hopes and troubles.
• We strive to serve Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation families with the caring their lost loved ones would have wanted for them.
• Our programs staff are surviving children who graduated with the assistance of Fallen Patriots. They are very well placed to relate with the experiences of the families we serve.

Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation has best in class management practices.

• Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation is certified by the Better Business Bureau and Independent Charities of America.
• Children of Fallen Patriots is a Platinum-level Guide Star Exchange participant, demonstrating our commitment to transparency.

What makes Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation unique versus other charities?

• What better way can we honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country than by investing the future of those they loved most in the world?
• There many ways to support wounded troops and our active military, but very few to support families of those who were killed.
• This urgent need has never been fully served – no one has found all the survivors, but Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation aims to complete that mission.
• Programs are administered by surviving children and our customer service is unique.

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

Kenneth Wilder
Kenneth Wilder is currently studying government at College of William and Mary. He believes his father would be proud of him for going to college and pursuing internships. “Fallen Patriots fanned a spark into a blazing flame,” Kenneth explained. “I wouldn’t have the ambitions and opportunities before me today without Fallen Patriots.” He plans to become a businessman and civil rights lawyer when he graduates. He hopes to serve his community and assist with indigent citizens in receiving the justice they need and deserve.

Lance Parson
Lance is currently studying civil engineering at Oregon State University. He says Fallen Patriots has been instrumental in his academic career and a vital role in who he’s become. “I don’t believe I would have taken care to learn what is important to become a man like my father was had it not been for the opportunities that were opened up because of the help provided by Children of Fallen Patriots,” Lance explained. He plans to get married and finish his enlistment contract with the army once he graduates. He hopes to become a Sargent, just like his dad.

Kristen McHugh-Moore
Kristen graduated Magna Cum Laude from Liberty University in 2016. “I always knew if there was anything I needed related to school or reaching my goals, Fallen Patriots was there to help,” Kristen explained. Her degree in family and child development and minor is psychology has allowed her to find a job she loves. “Just knowing there are groups like Fallen Patriots out there willing to help Gold Star families like mine is amazing.”

Jervon Lemon
Jervon graduated debt-free from South Carolina State University with a degree in psychology in 2010. She says Fallen Patriots motivated her to continue her education and go to graduate school to earn a Masters degree in counseling from South University. “Helping others and giving back is what counts, and as long as I am able to, I will continue to pay it forward,” Jervon explained. She now works for Fallen Patriots as a scholarship administrator. “To work for such an amazing organization and give back to families is such a blessing.”
