

Green Grove Cohousing Rules of Engagement

We are a community that believes we will work best and most constructively together if we:

- Are committed to finding common ground to promote community well-being
- Actively seek to give and receive feedback through active listening and respectful challenge
- Are tolerant of diverse perspectives
- Are committed to following clear and accepted rules for dealing with conflict directly and transparently
- Use inclusive protocols to communicate respectfully, honestly, and with loving intent