Knott Crockett, Sergeant, Co. I 101 OH Infantry U.S.

1831  November 14: Crockett was born in Clinton, Seneca County, OH to James and Mary Crockett.

1850  September 18: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Adams Township, Seneca County, OH showed 18-year-old Knott living with his parents and siblings. His father, James, was a farmer with $6,000 in real estate.

1862  August 12: Enlisted in the U.S. Army.

April 30: Mustered into Co. I of the 101st OH Infantry. He was promoted to full Corporal.

1863  June: A page of the Civil War Draft Registration has a page of “Now in Service” which lists Knott as currently serving in 101st OVI, Co. I.

1864  August 30: Promoted to Full Sergeant.

November 30: Mortally wounded in the battle of Franklin with a gunshot wound to the head. He died in a Regimental Hospital.