Oscar B. Daniels, Private, Co. C 111 OH Infantry, U.S.

1844  Daniels was born to parents Horace and Sally Daniels in Ohio.

1850  September 23:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Deerfield, Portage County, OH showed 6-year-old Oscar living with his parents and siblings. His father, Horace, is a farmer.

1857  September 24:  Father, Horace, died.

1860  June 8:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Millcreek, Williams County, OH showed 16-year-old Oscar living with his mother and siblings.

1861  April 27:  Older brother Oramel Daniels enlisted in the U.S. Army. He mustered into Co. K 8th OH Infantry.

        September 15:  Another brother Frederick Daniels enlisted in the U.S. Army. He mustered into Co. D 11th IL Infantry.

1862  August 14:  Enlisted in the U.S. Army. His brother Almon had enlisted 3 days before.

1864  November 30:  Killed at the Battle of Franklin. His regiment, the 111th OH, fought on the West side of the Columbia along the main line. His brother Almond was captured.

(Photo source: findagrave.com)