Levi VanCamp Eaton, Private, Co I 44th MO Infantry, U.S.

1828  (abt) Eaton was born in Mason, KY.

1850  August 20: The U.S. States Federal Census enumerated in Sullivan County, MO showed a 21-year-old Levi, a farmer, living with his wife Catherine. Living right next door was another Eaton family, most likely Levi’s parents, E.K. and Mary Eaton and siblings.

1860  July 28: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Sullivan County, MO showed Levi, a farmer, and wife “Kitty” living with their 4 young children.

  September 19 to October 31: Company Muster Roll. Present.

  November 30: Wounded slightly in the shoulder during the Battle of Franklin.

  December 20: Levi Eaton died from infection caused by his wound received at Franklin. He was in a General Hospital in Nashville. He was buried at the Nashville National Cemetery in grave #3730.