Adam Zoeller, Corporal, Co. H 183rd OH Infantry, U.S.

1841  (abt) Zoeller was born in Baden, Germany to Elizabeth Zoeller.

1861  May: Enlisted in the U.S. Army in Covington, KY.

1862  April 30 to October: Company Muster Roll. Present.

December 31: Captured and taken prisoner of war at The Battle of Stone River.

April 10: Special Muster Roll. Absent. Remarks “Taken Prisoner at battle of Stone River Deebr. 31. 1862.”

July & August: Company Muster Roll. Present. Remarks “To be stopped for transportation from Columbus O $7.40/100.”

June 30 – October 31: Company Muster Roll. Present. Remarks “To be stopped for transportation from Columbus O. $7.40/100.”

November & December: Company Muster Roll. Present.

1864  January to April: Company Muster Roll. Present.

August 30: Re-enlisted in the U.S. Army and mustered into Co. H 183rd OH.

November 30: Wounded in the Battle of Franklin. Gunshot wound to both hips.

December 1: Admitted to Hospital #14 in Nashville, TN.

1865  July 10: Applied for and was given a Military pension.

June 27: Discharged by surgeon certificate of disability at Jefferson Barracks.
1876/7 Listed in the Cincinnati City Directory as a Bolt Maker. He lived at 387 E. 3rd St. Also living in the household was his mother Elizabeth and his younger brother Leopold.

1870 June 11: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Cincinnati, Hamilton County, OH showed Adam, a blacksmith, living with his mother Elizabeth and his younger brother Leopold.

1878 October 25: Admitted into the U.S. National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in Dayton, OH.

December 31: The Cincinnati Enquirer, Cincinnati, OH.

1880 Listed in the Cincinnati City Directory as a Bolt Maker. He lived at 387 E. 3rd St.

1887 July 1: Listed as a nurse at the Central Branch at the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. He was paid $40.00.

1889 July 1: Listed as a nurse at the Central Branch at the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. He was paid $144.00.

1892 February 18: Transferred to General Hospital for Insane.

June 6: Released from General Hospital for Insane because he “was improved.”

August 4: Adam Zoller died and was interred in the National Cemetery in Hampton, VA.