Alcana Mumpower, Corporal, Co. C 44th MO Infantry U.S.

1831  November 4:  Mumpower was born in Virginia to Peter and Miriam Mumpower.

1850  October 12:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Caldwell County, MO showed 19-year-old Alcana living with his parents and siblings. His father, Peter, is a farmer.

1860  June 18:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Caldwell County, MO showed Alcana, a farmer, living with his wife and their infant daughter.

1864  August 9:  Enlisted in the U.S. Army.

August 30:  Mustered into the 44th MO.

November 30:  Wounded at the Battle of Franklin. (slightly wounded in the arm)

1865  January 1:  Promoted to Sergeant.

August 15:  Mustered out of the U.S. Army.

1870  July 12:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Caldwell County, Missouri showed Alcana, a farmer, living with his wife and four children. Living in the household next door are his parents.

1879  April 15:  Applied for a Military pension.

1900  June 1:  The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Caldwell County, MO showed Alcana, living with his wife, Isabella.

1901  January 17:  Alcana Mumpower died. He was buried at Kingston Cemetery, Kingston, MO.