Wilson Blaine Logan, Captain, Co. D, 175 OH Infantry, U.S.

1830  Logan was born in Ohio to James and Helena Logan.

1860  July 30: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Jefferson Township, Fayette County, OH showed W.B., a grocer, and M.V., living with their children: Shepherd, age 6, Jas, 3 and Sina, 2.

1861  December 1861: Enlisted in the U.S. Army, Company C, 60th OH. He was a Sergeant.

Captured at Harper's Ferry. When he was exchanged, he returned home.

1862  November 10: Mustered out of the U.S. Army.

1863  March 6: Logan was appointed U.S. Postmaster in Jeffersonville, Fayette County, OH.

December 27: Brother George was wounded in a railroad collision and died. He had wounded in battle and had been returning to his regiment at the time of the accident.

1864  September 13: Commissioned as an officer in the 175th Ohio.

November 30: Killed at the Battle of Franklin.
December 15: An article in The Highland Weekly News in Hillsboro, OH listed the recent 175 OVI dead.

1865 November 27: Mary Logan applied for a Military Pension for her husband’s service.