Hold Funeral of Major Pat Henry In Brandon Today

Brandon, Miss., May 18—(AP)—In this little town which he served as a mayor for 14 years, Major Pat Henry, statesman and soldier, was buried today.

Death closed the colorful career of Major Pat Henry Sunday morning, and with it brought to a close a life devoted to the welfare of Mississippi.

Major Henry had served his state as Confederate soldier, congressman, state legislator and member of the memorable constitutional convention of 1860 at which the governing code of Mississippi was adopted.

Funeral services were held this morning from the Episcopal church with Bishop Theodore Dubose Britton of the Mississippi diocese and Rev. Val Sessions officiating.

Among the honorary pallbearers were the seven remaining members of the United Confederate Veterans camp here.

Surviving are one daughter, Miss Anne Henry, and three sons, Judge Pat Henry of Monticello, Ark.; Ed Henry of Dublin, and Robert Henry of Jackson.
