Wright Weatherly, Private, Co. F 14\textsuperscript{th} TN Cavalry, C.S.

The following timeline is 1 member of the Weatherly family, who had at least 6 family members fighting on the field at Franklin: James, Houston, Rufus, William, Wright and Elial. Brothers and cousins.

1841 January: Weatherly was born to parents Wright and Ann Weatherly in Madison County, TN.

1850 September 6: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Denmark, Madison County, TN showed 9-year-old Wright living with his parents, Wright and Ann, and his siblings: Caroline, Mary, Robert, William, Rufus, Houston, Nancy, John and Alexander. His father was a farmer and owned $1000 in real estate.

1861 May 15: Brothers Houston and Robert enlisted in the C.S. Army in Jackson, TN. They both mustered into Co. K of the 6\textsuperscript{th} TN Infantry.

1862 March 10: Wright's cousins, who lived on the neighboring farm, Elial and Lucius enlisted in the C.S. Army in Jackson, TN. They mustered into Co. L, 6\textsuperscript{th} TN Infantry. His brother James enlisted on the same day and was mustered into the 51\textsuperscript{st} TN Infantry.

1863 July 8: Wright and 3 of his brothers: William, James and Rufus, joined the Confederate Army in their hometown of Denmark, Tennessee. They mustered into Co F 14\textsuperscript{th} Cavalry. Enlisting might not have been voluntary, during the summer of 63' Gen. N. B. Forrest was conscripting soldiers throughout West Tennessee.

       August: Weatherly’s brother Rufus was wounded in battle Wright carried him off the field, losing his gun in the process.

       November 25: Brother John T. Weatherly was killed in action at the Battle of Missionary Ridge.

1864 November 30: Wright and his brothers Houston, William, James and Rufus, as well as his cousin Elial “Boss” Weatherly fought in the Battle of Franklin. His brother, James Weatherly, was killed in action.

       December 16: Cousin, Boss, was captured while fighting in the Battle of Nashville. He was sent to Camp Douglas in Chicago.

1880 June 17: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Clark, Greene County, AR showed Wright, a farmer and his wife Mary living with four sons.

1900 June 28: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Clark, Greene County, AR showed Wright, a widowed farmer, living with his brother Rufus and his family. Although Rufus is listed as the head of the household, Wright owned the farm.
1910 May 11: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Clark, Greene County, AR showed a widowed Wright living with his widowed daughter-in-law and grandchildren. He was 69 years old and still doing work as a farm laborer.

1913 Paragould newspaper clipping.

Exact date of death unknown.