Moses Bogan, Private, Co A 175th OH Volunteer Infantry U.S.

1843 January 9: Bogan was born to parents William and Sarah Bogan in Clinton County, OH.

1850 September 27: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Washington Township, Clinton County, OH showed 7-year-old Moses living with his parents and siblings. His father William is a farmer.

1860 July 14: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Vernon Township, Clinton County, OH showed 18 year old Moses living with his parents and siblings.

1864 September 2: Enlisted in the U.S. Army in Hillsboro, OH. Description at enlistment: 5’10”, dark eyes, fair complexion.

   September 5: Bogan’s father William and his 18 year old brother, Benjamin both enlisted in the U.S. Army.

   November 30: Bogan, his brother and father fought in the Battle of Franklin. He was wounded and his father William was killed in action.

1865 February 28: Bogan’s brother, Henry W., also enlisted in the U.S. Army in Columbus, OH. He mustered into Co. D 188th OH Volunteer Infantry.

   June 27: Moses mustered out of the U.S. Army in Nashville, TN.

   June 30: Moses’ brother, Benjamin, died of typhoid fever in Clinton County, OH. He was 19 years old. He was buried at the Rehobath Cemetery in Clinton County, OH.

   December 28: Married Hannah Tufts.

1870 July 18: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Vernon Township, Clinton County, Ohio showed Moses, a farmer, and Hannah living with their infant daughter. Also, living in residence next door is Moses’ brother Henry and his family.

1875 August 9: Bogan’s wife Hannah died.

1878 January 25: Married Vanda Green in Clinton County, OH.

1880 June 16: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Vernon Township, Clinton County, OH showed Moses, a farmer, living with his second wife Vanda and his children.

1889 July 31: Bogan applied for and was granted a military pension for his service in the Civil War.

1890 Listed on the “Surviving Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines, and Widows, etc.” Schedule of the 1890 census, disability listed from “shell wound.”
1900  June 7: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Washington Township, Clinton County, OH showed Moses, a pensioner, and Vanda living with their young grandson, Cecil.

1910  May 6: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Washington Township, Clinton County, OH showed Moses, a church janitor, living with his wife Vanda. Also living with the couple is their 12 year old grandson Cecil.

1911  October: 124 “grizzly members of the grand army” attended a Grand Army of the Republic reunion in Wilmington, OH; Bogan was among the soldiers present.

1913  March 25: Moses’ wife Vanda died.

1915  Bogan was listed in History of Clinton County, OH: It’s People, Industries, and Institutions on page 219 as being Vice President of the G.A.R. from Washington Township.

1920  January 3: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Washington Township, Clinton County, OH showed a retired Moses living with his grandson Cecil and his family.

1925  January 30: Moses Bogan died.

August 4: Wilmington News Journal, Wilmington, Ohio.