Martin Josiah McHenry, Lieutenant, Co G 9th AR Infantry, C.S.

1842 July 14: McHenry was born in Shelby County, AL to Martin and Margaret McHenry.

1844 McHenry family moved from Alabama to Arkansas.

1850 October 24: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Wilmington Township, Union County, AR showed 8 year old Martin living with his parents and siblings. His father, Martin, was a planter who owned 11 slaves.

1860 August 8: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Wilmington Township, Union County, AR showed 18-year-old “Josiah” living with his parents and siblings. His father, Martin, was a farmer who owned 12 slaves.

1862 January 1 to May: Company Muster Rolls. Present.

April 6: McHenry’s 18-year-old brother Ben was killed in action at the Battle of Shiloh.

July 30: Appeared on a register containing rosters of commissioned officers, Provisional Army Confederate States.

November and December: Company Muster Roll. Present.

1863 January 1 to November: Company Muster Rolls. Present.

September 20: Martin’s 23 year old brother Lewellyn was killed in action at Battle of Chickamauga.

1864 April 30: Appeared on a roster of commissioned officers of the Third Brigade, Loring’s Division.

July 1 – September 1: Company Muster Roll. Present. Remarks “signs roll as commanding the Co.”

November 30: Fought in the Battle of Franklin.

1865 March 11: Martin appeared on a reporting of furloughs granted by Hospital Examining Board in Selma, AL. Information given: Brigade: Reynolds, Residence: Talladega, Length of furlough: thirty days, Disease: V.S. M. B., Remarks “Exm of 30 days read”

1870 June 18: The U.S. Federal Census showed Martin, a physician, living in Brown Township, Columbia County, AR.
1872  May 14: Married Fannie Scott in Columbia County, AR.

1874  September 20: Wife, Fannie, died.

1875  October 13: Daily Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, AR. Martin attended a convention in Little Rock with his brother Philip, who was also a physician.

1878  February 20: Daily Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, AR.

December 22: Married Minnie Estelle Teague in Pulaski County, AR.

1880  June: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Gray Township, Pulaski County, AR showed Martin, a physician, living with his wife and children. Also living in his household were his parents and a younger brother.
August 15: Daily Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, AR.

1890 February 21: Arkansas Democrat, Little Rock, AR.
August 16: Daily Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, AR.

September 16: Dr. Martin Josiah McHenry died from his wounds. He was buried in Bayou Meto Cemetery in Pulaski County, AR.

September 17: Daily Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, AR.