John Thomas Lowe, Surgeon, F&S, 43 MS Infantry, CS

1824  November 6: Born in Huntsville, AL to Bartley and Sarah Manning Lowe.

1844  Lowe was listed as an alumnus at the University of Alabama, Class of 1842.

1860  August 20: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Monroe County, MS showed J.T., a physician, living with a Goodlad family.

1862  May 21: Commissioned into the C.S. Army as a surgeon.

1864  January: Appeared on list of medical officers serving 43rd MS Infantry.

August: Appeared on roll of staff officers of Stewart’s Corps, Army of Tennessee

August 20th Lowe appeared on an inspection report of Adam’s Brigade as NOT being present, “at Div. Infirmary”

August: Appeared on roll of staff officers of Stewart’s Corps, Army of Tennessee.

November 30: Attended the wounded at the Battle of Franklin. Dr. Lowe would have treated men at Carnton, Gen’l Loring’s Division Hospital.

December 26: Appeared on register of Army of Tennessee. Remarks “Sent to Hospl. sick.”

1 Photo from findagrave, provided by Gail Fisher Walker.
1869  Listed in the Natchez Bulletin as a Permanent Member of the Association in the State of Mississippi. [Medical Association]\(^2\)

1870  August 23: The U.S. Federal Census enumerated in Aberdeen, Monroe County, MS showed John, a doctor, living on his own.

1880  May 22: Died in Aberdeen, MS. The U.S. Mortality Schedule listed cause of death as “soft brain.” He was buried at Odd Fellows Rest Cemetery in Aberdeen, MS.

\(^2\) The Natchez Bulletin, Natchez, MS, Friday 23 Apr 1869, pg. 2.
\(^3\) The Weekly Democrat, Natchez, MS, Wednesday 2 Jun 1880, pg. 3.
\(^4\) Photo from findagrave, provided by Gail Fisher Walker.