March 2019

ASC Mission Statement: "Provide experiences in life skills and learning to enhance the lives of youth by giving children a safe and caring environment where they feel valued."

Hey Everyone!

We have a lot of fun clubs planned for this coming month! We are looking for parent volunteers from different cultures to help with our multicultural club this month. If you are interested, please let Alena Anderson know. We are also looking forward to our parent night this month, which will be on March 28th, from 5:30-6:30. It will be a STEAM theme. Just so you are aware, spring break will be April 1-5. Please put these on your calendar. Thanks!

March Clubs

Creative Creations-The students in this club will use their STEM skills to make different art and science projects.

Swing Dancing Club- The students will go through the 2 weeks in the club learning different line dances and basic dance steps.

Improv Club- The students will practice quick thinking, imagination, and creativity while doing different improv exercises and activities.

Multicultural Club- The students will learn about and experience activities from different cultures.

3, 2, 1 Blastoff!- This club is all about space! The students will learn about the solar system and different items in space.

Monday Activities

Life skills- The students will learn what time management is and learn how to manage the different list of activities in their life. They will make hour glasses.

Confidence Crew- The students will have the opportunity to express themselves through a fashion show with various dress ups and poses.

Character Company- The students will learn about emotions such as fear and anger. They will learn how to properly control and express these feelings.
