REGULATION AND SURVEILLANCE IN URBAN SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

Dr. Jade Boyd is a Research Scientist with the British Columbia Centre for Substance Use (formerly the Urban Health Research Initiative) at the BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS. Her research interests include intersectionality-informed qualitative and ethnographic methodology as well as representations, regulation, and discourses of substance use and addiction. Her most recent work with the centre has been published in the International Journal of Drug Policy and Critical Public Health.

PUBLIC TALK BY DR. JADE BOYD

Date: Thursday February 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 2017
Time: 4:00 – 6:00pm
Location: SFU HC 2200 RBC Dominion Securities Board Room, Harbour Centre, 515 West Hastings Street, Vancouver

Respondent: Lisa Freeman, Department of Criminology, Kwantlen Polytechnic University

Co-sponsored by Centre for Policy Studies on Culture and Communities, SFU; Institute for Humanities, SFU; Canadian Association of Cultural Studies; and The Social Justice Centre, Kwantlen Polytechnic University.