SINGLE BARREL COCKTAILS

One of our favorite things to do at Strategic Hospitality is visit distilleries. Our staff will observe their production methods, taste through product and select our own single barrel of spirit. Each individual barrel is like its own ecosystem and no two barrels taste the same. Although the spirit may be made from the exact same recipe, the way the spirit matures in each barrel is unique. We take trips to some of our favorite distilleries and select unique barrels to share with you. Please try them in a cocktail or try them on their own. We hope you enjoy our selections and appreciate the world of distilled spirits as much as we do.
